

Sale Name: Absolute Consignment Auction #22- RL Showroom Union, KY

LOT 574 - Cathédrale St.-Julien de Mans Stained Glass Art Reproduction

VIERGE A LA Vierge de la Cathédrale de Metz
 Vierge de la Cathédrale de Metz
 Vierge de la Cathédrale de Metz

Dimensions 24 3/4 x 34 1/2

Description

Believed to be drawings of Cathedral St-Julien de mans in France. Please see information below, These are believed to be hand colored. Artist is unknown. Unsure if these are originals and if they are hand colored. Rough edges present. See research below taken from The Corning Museum of glass blog.

The city of Le Mans is in the Loire region of France, 300 miles southwest of Paris. Le Mans is an ancient town with Roman walls, the seat of a Roman Catholic diocese, and is famous for its 24-hour sports car race. It is also home to the Cathédrale St.-Julien de Mans, which is one of the largest cathedrals in France and features a very rich collection of medieval stained glass.

Markings on paper:

Publies Sous la directoub de correspondant des ministeres detat et de l'instruction publique pour lea travaux historiques.

Vitrail de s'gervais et de s' protais
Martyrdom of e s' gervais

-----

Translation:

Publsished under the direction of M.E. Hucher correspondent of state and public education for historical works.

Stained glass window of S' Gervais and S' Protais.

Quantity: 1

<https://bid.resettledlife.com/>